SCIENTIFIC & TECHNICAL RECRUITMENT

Bulletin – May 2018

The international markets are very volatile and Trump's approach to world trade and a growing move away from the petrodollar are creating uncertainty across the globe. NZ holds steady and the implementation of CPTIP (TTP-USA) holds promise for NZ exporters. Meanwhile we are experiencing an increase in the demand for on call staff and have a range of production to technical candidates to meet volatility, seasonal and contingency requirements for your business. Call us now. We are here to help with all your staffing needs.
